Notes
 CHILD 1 - Marie Louise Guth
 Louise grew up in a family with six brothers who she adored. Her parents were always close and part of her life. Louise started school in a one room school house in Oklahoma and then continued at Ravenna Elemetary School in Seattle. Louise and Irving met in Lincoln High School in Seattle. She apprenticed as a hair dresser in the "Band Box Solon" in the University District. She was a beauty operator until she was married in 1923, and moved to California. She was a talented writer as well and wrote plays, short stories and poems. She was known as the "cameo lady" when she read poems on the radio in the 30's and early 40's. Louise was a member of 13th church of Christ, Scientist for many years and taught sunday school there.
