Notes
CHILD 1 - Stine Mortensen Married Marius Nielsen FISKERS.
CHILD 2 - Ellen Marie Mortensen Married Ole Henricksen, 8 June 1884, Denmark.
CHILD 3 - Martine Elise Mortensen Martine was the village school teacher; followed Hans to America with her daughters, leaving her close family and position behind. She was noted for her gardens in Derby, and for her loving help she gave to those who had less than she.  Martine and Hans had eleven children in all. Five were premature, including twin sons born between Irene and Lalla.  An interesting facet of Martine's nature was that whenever she became pregnant she immediately went to the dressmaker and ordered new clothes that fit her perfectly.  Martine, called "Moa" (danish for mother) by her children and subsequently by her grandchildren, loved children and it was a common occurrence in the Donnergaard home to have the less fortunate children of the neighborhoods in their home. Moa often came home from shopping at the Salvation Army Store with arms loaded with clothing she bought and which she and her daughters remade into clothes for these needy neighbors. This continued until those needy ones began telling them how they wished their clothes to be made, whereupon Martine determined that they were no longer needy.
